Cleo is a rescue we adopted in June of 2001. She turned 5 a month after we adopted her. Cleo is the sweetest little black mask. After moving in with us, it took her four months to pick up a toy. Now she greets me at the door with a toy in her mouth each day I come from work. Cleo went from being a townhouse girl to a country girl and loves to run in our fields and to chase rabbits. Cleo earned the nickname Worm from frequent episodes of "worming out" while outside. It is difficult to describe "worming out", it is something that has to be experienced. Let's just say that when Cleo "worms out", all humans and Dogues run for cover. Although we have had Cleo for only a little over 3 years so far, she is an integral part of our family. I could not imagine our lives without her.
